TABLEWARE

Valuable waste

Strictly speaking, our tableware consists of waste – and we’re actually proud of it! Waste is not always a bad thing. Quite the opposite: Our extensive range of tableware is made from natural waste products. Leaves that have fallen from the areca palm are transformed into unique plates, bowls or menu boxes. Each product is one of a kind thanks to the distinct grain of the leaves. We also focus on upcycling for our paper products, since we use recycled old paper for the production. For our sugarcane assortment, we make use of bagasse, which is simply a residue product in sugar production. That’s how sustainability works! The products are not coated because they’re grease and water repellent by nature, making them the perfect base for all kinds of food. God bless mother nature!

CUTLERY + NAPKINS

Razor-sharp environmental protection

Cutlery has to be pretty robust. This includes various high temperatures as well as liquids and fats. Our sustainable cutlery is made out of renewable materials such as wood, bamboo or paper. You can't cut with paper? Think again: when several layers are pressed together you can! If you'd still like something to go with it, our serviettes made of bamboo and recycled paper are the perfect solution. An unbeatable and sustainable combo: The cutlery will keep your fingers clean while the napkins will remove any mishaps. This way you can relax and enjoy meals directly at the food truck, for instance.

BAGS + PAPER

Useful and easy!

There's no doubt cross-bottom and block-bottom bags as well as flat and folding bags are unwieldy names. But the little helpers are practical and functional at the same time. The block-bottom bags score points with their firm standing. Some of them have a simple clip closure. All others can simply be folded in. The bags are also tasteless and odourless, making them ideal for packaging tea and coffee. Whereas folding bags are especially suited for baked goods. The wide side fold will enable you to fit a lot of tasty sins in here! We also have wrapping paper in which you can wrap particularly delicate food or products for protection.

CARRIER BAGS + BOXES

Everything under control!

"Do you need another bag?" - Your customers' purchase will be ready for transport with our carrier bags and boxes. Products are stowed in our classic kraft paper bags- either in a traditional look or in bright colours. The coloured bags are perfectly suited to gift packaging. That particularly applies to our bottle bags. Upon request, we'll print the carrier bags for you in order to create a distinctive feature. While the spacious paper bags are more suited to transporting compact food, the boxes with handles are ideal for transporting delicate products such as cakes.

More, more and more!

The reusable sector is no longer about making savings – even politicians are now clear about this. The future will take a reusable path, and we’re embarking on it as well! In this respect, the legal obligation to reuse products will come into effect next year in Germany. Many restaurateurs will therefore be obliged to offer their customers reusable packaging alternatives. We’ll prepare you for this transition, as our reusable range continues to grow. New in our shop are menu and burger boxes from the Häppy Box range. These products are all made from a composition of natural fibres and organic polymers. The special feature: Our long-life reusable products are exact copies of the short-life disposable products as regards size and volume. For you, that means more reusable for more sustainability without much additional effort.

INDIVIDUALISED PRODUCT

Show them who you are

You'd like to advertise your café, food truck or the like and with the least possible effort? We'll support you in a simple way: We'll print your reusable bowls, paper carrier bags, labels, napkins and paper cups with your own individual logo. While a customer takes a sip from your printed paper cup, your logo is clearly displayed for everyone to see. This transforms your customers into walking, talking billboard – and it's totally free! The printing makes it easy to recognise your brand, giving your product that final individual touch. You probably put a lot of work into the logo and branding? So why not use this to your advantage! It's very simple: In our online shop you'll find printing guidelines and the corresponding printing punches for your relevant products.

HYGIENE, SHIPPING & MORE

Conservation of resources in all areas

We're constantly expanding our range – and not only for packaging. We'd like to establish sustainable items in other areas as well. The alternatives are there! That's why we launched OrganiClean for example. OrganiClean products are organic cleaning agents that are biodegradable. It's also worth mentioning our recycled hygiene paper in this context. This includes toilet paper and towels. We're now taking a sustainable approach in completely different areas such as mail order and gift items, too. In the future, our shop will continue to grow, as we'd also like to reflect our sustainability approach in other products. So, stay tuned!
